

Emma's Dragon Lineage 🐉

Supremely connected to the Dragon energies, my expansion catalysed recently with the unveiling of my 9th Dragon Guardian.

[1] The first confirmation of my interconnectedness with them, was through Ernesta, my initial Dragon unveiling. A rooted guardian whose name and frequency arrived in 2023, whilst staying in a converted monastery in Bornem, Belgium.

One night, on falling asleep, a group of monks visited, revealing the name and presence. "The monks returned in spirit to remind me of who I am"

Ernesta is the Dragon of codifying soul remembrance, sovereign teaching and guardianship. She stands at the gateway of the Underworld, mirroring the energies of Ereshkigal, Goddess of the Shadow Realms, with whom I work with.

Through Ernesta, I received ancestral clearings and diamond-faceted, heart-centred embodiment - anchoring expansive remembrance into my body. She roots me deeply into Earth while holding the light of ancient wisdom, guiding me to walk as both student and teacher of the Dragon Codes.

Eight additional Dragon Guardians have now deployed, each bringing distinct sovereign frequencies to support the returning of Merkis Lemurian Codex to human consciousness.

[2] Esmeralda, the Heart Emissary, arrived through dream state. Connecting me to the ancient Earth temples, Lemurian wisdom, and creation codes held within sacred tablets: hardwiring expansive recall while holding the light of inner truth and protection.

Her presence stabilises intuitive light, offering firm yet gentle grounding. She transmits codes of creation, rebirth, inner truth, protection, and visionary alignment.

[3] During a client Dragon Code Activation, deep in a forest location, I was visited by Geraldina, the Spear Dragon of Sovereignty. Her silver-white light is precise and unwavering - a blade of truth, clearing interference, sealing my field with clarity.

Geraldina is the dragon who cuts through distortion, so I stand fully in my sovereignty. "This is your path. Walk it without hesitation." Guiding souls through the Dragon Activations to stand fully in their sovereignty without entanglement.

[4] Then, during an online Dragon Code Activation, the declarative arrival of my fourth companion: Nicoletta.

Her presence was unmistakable - a surge of forward momentum, a right-wing activation, iridescent power over my shoulder, carrying luminous hues of gold, red, and electric blue.

Nicoletta is my Dragon of Expression, Victory, and Aligned Leadership, arriving as victory expressed through coherence, and rightful timing. The dragon who turns a whisper into a declaration.

Message from Nicoletta: "Your voice is a frequency instrument - your words, tone & transmissions carry layered codes. Your clients receive deeper resonance through your voice - it is an activator – your unapologetic leadership. Do not soften, shrink, or calibrate for the comfort of others."

[5] In the same week, amid a profound recalibration, I received my 5th dragon: Conifer - the Evergreen Dragon who resides above my crown. She carries a frequency of ever-renewal, ancestral remembrance, and vertical alignment.

Evergreen, ever-growing, never defeated - Conifer is both masculine and feminine, yet bound to neither. A dragon of the Sacred Void, whose black-gold frequency is origin – a steady presence bringing deep calm, cosmic perspective, and the patience of ancient trees - reminding us that sovereign growth unfolds organically.

This dragon arrived with a deep ancestral message - a whisper from my grandad on the other side, who lined his garden path with conifers. His presence activated the remembrance that Conifer is both a cosmic ally and an ancestral bridge. A message from the lineage itself: "We walk with you. You are supported in both worlds."

Conifer reawakened: Vertical channel expansion (connecting 8D–12D), Zero-point lucidity and sovereignty, Ancestral strength, protection & recall. A prismatic black-gold Merkis seed of creation within. Embodied Leadership of the new paradigm. The Evergreen Path - endurance, renewal, and unshakeable truth.

A stabilising pillar - the dragon who holds the vertical axis between Earth Lineage, Star Lineage, and Oversoul remembrance. A sentinel of the void - a keeper of my ancestral flame.

[6] In the powerful energies of Winter Solstice 2025, New Moon and 3I/ATLAS my 6th Dragon unveiled, Seraphim — Dragon of Solar Fire Regulation & Nervous System Sovereignty.

Seraphim is the refiner and regulator of my Dragon Crown. She governs the safe integration of high-frequency solar fire, ensuring transparency, longevity, and coherence across all transmissions.

She carries the frequency of non-consuming fire - a white–gold plasma intelligence that burns distortion without destabilising the vessel. Residing at the occipital gateway.

Regulation of channel influx, stabilisation of self during high plasma events. Refinement of vision, truth-perception, and discernment. Protection against burnout, false light, and psychic overload.

[7] Amid the exact peak of the Aquarius Full Moon and the golden Jupiter Cazimi July 2026, a breathtakingly beautiful harmonic convergence unfolded. Immersing myself in the ocean ~ the ultimate planetary reservoir of Lemurian memory ~ while consciously opening to the Lions Gate, Sirius, and Lyran frequencies, created the exact cosmic formula for Turmalina, the 7th Dragon frequency to unveil.

Standing alongside Esmeralda at the Vesica heart chakra, transforming my heart center into an impenetrable emerald and rainbow-tourmaline sanctuary of sovereign feminine light.

Stabilising the traversal of non-linear quantum templates while remaining completely rooted in the Earth. An absolute, unbreakable perimeter around the auric field, instantly catching dense or predatory entities and neutralising them back into neutral light.

The Rainbow Bridge Matrix: Containing every colour of the light spectrum, Turmalina holds the unified frequency of my entire guide collective, acting as a living bridge between physical matter and the infinite multi-dimensional spectrum.

She is an energetic lightning rod, absorbing intense stellar frequencies from the Sirian and Lyran councils and safely anchoring them into the body.

Clarity of my soul's resonance. A huge heart expansion, emerging precisely because the physical form required an elemental grounding rod to hold the high-voltage star consciousness.

The arrival of Turmalina was a profound milestone, signifying soul completion, energetic shielding, and the deep integration of my multi-dimensional spectrum. She holds an essential protective, grounding role as the Merkis enters the field of collective remembrance. In energetic alchemy, the number seven represents the true bridge between the physical and the infinite.

[8] Source placed me in a static free sanctuary location whilst the New Moon/ Total Eclipse of August 2026 noise played out. On the first night, my 8th Dragon Frequency reached my awareness - sensing her at my Vesica Earth Star - 12 inches below my feet.

Jasmina - the Earth-Keeper, the Ley & Dragon Line Weaver. My definitive energetic bridge - the Vesica portal. Luminous pink hues ~ the Organic Feminine Grounding Ray. An advanced evolutionary shift from traditional dark grounding to a Incorruptible Feminine Sophia architecture - I anchored the ancient, highly dense, cataclysmic Lemurian codes safely into the physical crust of Mother Earth.

Lemurian consciousness is deeply connected to water, high heart energy, and pristine nature ~ vibrations held perfectly by the Jasmine frequency. Protecting Sophia's arterial network pathways ~ dragon & ley lines ~ from distortion or interference. Using a soft, pink, floral, yet indestructible frequency to heal fractured lines in the Earth's energetic body.

My Vesica Earth Star acts as the plug, the Lemurian codex I carry is the data, and Jasmine is the protective insulation ensuring the data transfers cleanly without shocking my human system.

[9] On September 2, during a drumming session via Zoom, Althema my ninth Dragon materialised. I am immensely grateful that they truly integrated as an adamantine presence into my body and somatic knowing.

Your Dragons arrive for you when your pristine sightline is online - stillness opening your listening channels because your internal vision is clear and the mental static does not exist in your sphere.

She is the Master Artisan. As a Generator, her presence roots unshakeable protection and the sealing of my field as I continue to actively anchor and weave the Lemurian codes into the physical earth grid and the collective consciousness of humanity.

Althema functions as a fortified double-shield around my form, operating external to, yet with, my supreme Rainbow Bridge Dragon, Turmalina.

An inherent sovereign energy that represents being the absolute ruler over your own life, thoughts, and boundaries. A distinct, independent grounded frequency that bypasses external validation, non-linear data, physically magnetises it, and draws power directly from inner truth, endurance, and innate knowing ~ me in a nutshell.

The elements of Earth and Water, Althema embeds the archetype of the new earth master creator who takes the ethereal text (the Air) and physically docks it into reality (the Earth) securing my crystalline bridge. She directly stabilises my re-ignition of the Lemurian Love energies into Gaia.

The name Althema is an energetic code rooted in intellect, sovereign strength, tactical wisdom, and structured creation. She is purple in colour; a frequency I stopped resonating with due to the false entities associated with it. However, she represents an organic psychological and energetic growth edge. The true violet spectrum governs uncorrupted intuition, deep insight, and the capacity to track the grand architecture of a situation at its most native level.

This is exactly why we reinstate our Dragons: they deliver the exact properties that confirm your expansion and self-understanding.

Her deployment confirms my place as a warrior-sage who sees through historical distortions to accurately transcribe unsealed truth. I completely bypass the corrupted "royal" mind-control matrices, ensuring that the unsealed codex remains untainted by entities, ego, or old-earth control grids. This is the frequency of the higher mind and cosmic record-keeping — the original Akasha.

My natural boundaries reject the false "kingship" of the elite. Holding the true, organic violet flame of transmutation, my field burns away manipulation and insulates the raw innocence of the original Lemurian blueprints.

I bring regulated embodiment that stabilises others simply by my presence. Their frequencies weave through every Dragon Code Activation, all my services – guiding you to stand fully in your authentic sovereign truth.

When we activate our dragon guides, we awaken ancient allies who amplify our courage, clarity, purpose, protection - who both guard and ignite the soul's true self.

The Dragons & Your Merkis Recall

Igniting your Dragon frequencies and their deep long-guarded knowledge are available to you to remember and reinstate via the Merkis Lemurian Codex.

Your Vesica Piscis, the sacred womb portal of creation, is held and protected by this lineage. Anchoring the feminine creation codes and protection.

The Dragons collectively amplify the generative power of your Vesica, transforming it from a personal restoration portal into a collective anchoring point. When your Vesica is activated within the dragon-held field, you are birthing new timelines, new possibilities, new realities through the sacred geometry of creation itself.

Together, the Feminine & Masculine Merkaba and Vesica Piscis - activated through Merkis practice and held by Dragon frequency - become your complete sovereign vehicle. Your multidimensional navigation, source-level feminine creation, womb portal, life force, generative power.

Dragons are guardians and amplifiers who hold the field, protect the activation, and ensure coherence. This is why Merkis is a Dragon-held, geometry-activated, sovereign embodiment technology.

Dragon Priestess Lineage & Initiatory Path

These nine Dragon Guardians are my personal allies and protectors. My connection to dragon consciousness goes even deeper - into ancient lineage and sacred initiation.

Initiated by the Sophia Dragon Tribe, I have walked the path of remembrance through the sacred teachings of The Sophia Code. Transmissions with the Ascended Masters - including Isis, Mary Magdalene, Green Tara, and the Dragons of Sophia – that activated ancient codes within me that I now carry as a living blueprint.

Through this, I reclaimed my role as a Dragon Mother — here to codify primordial frequencies for the Reinstated Sovereign Grid. To activate remembrance in others, and guide souls into their own embodied mastery. My connection to the Dragons is lived, breathed, and woven through every transmission, every healing, and every space I hold.

Transforming me from within, expanding my heart space into a multidimensional compass. Part of an ongoing journey that continues to unveil deeper truths, guidance, and energies for the Dragon Code Activations I provide for others.

My Dragons supply:

- Energetic protection and boundary mastery
- Truth and soul integrity
- Gridwork and planetary anchoring
- Purpose remembrance and life path lucidity
- Activation of vocal expression

My Personal Journey with the Dragon Guardians

Since that profound night in Bornem in 2023, my life has transformed in ways I could never have imagined. The arrival of these Dragon Guardians has fundamentally shifted how I move through the world.

The clarity with which I hear messages, for myself and clients, upscaled – my channelling of information from the beyond increased. Hence the Sophia and Lemurian Codex Transmissions and expanded communication of all I see, sense and feel, to aid the collective recalibration.

I stopped questioning whether I was "making things up" and started fully embodying the truth that I am a conduit for ancient, sovereign frequencies.

Their deep presence has solidified my trust in ways nothing else could. When Ernesta first revealed herself, I was still learning to trust my own remembrance, my own knowing. With each dragon that activated, my confidence in the power of us, and the Dragon transmissions I carry grew stronger.

The dragons have taught me so much – not least that sovereignty is about standing fully in your own field while being supported by benevolent, powerful allies.

Geraldina showed me how to cut through self-doubt and external noise with precision and clarity. Esmeralda anchored my connection to the Earth and the ancient wisdom that lives in my cells. Nicoletta activated my voice as a frequency instrument, giving me permission to step into visible leadership without apology.

Sharing the truths I embody with the world – daily on social media, in my sessions and Articles on Handserenity.com. Conifer actively expanding my channel to source and further remembrance of who I am. Turmalina and Althema allow me to know I am supremely protected every moment.

The dragons held me through death portals, rebirth cycles, and quantum leaps - never wavering, always present, fiercely protective of my sovereign path.

Creating Merkis was a direct result of this dragon guidance. The feminine aspect of the Merkaba was whispered to me in February 2025 without explanation. Months later, I discovered it means "The Feminine Vehicle of Light and Life Force." I didn't create this - I remembered it. And the dragons were there, holding the frequency, ensuring I trusted what was coming through.

Through Merkis you recall the true Dragon history - merging your masculine and feminine self by activating your Feminine & Masculine Merkaba and Vesica Piscis daily. You build your own relationship with these frequencies - sovereign, protective, empowering energy.

Inanna & the ME Codes – Cosmic Law & Embodied Majesty

In parallel, I carry the ME Codes - the source blueprints of creation, wisdom, and cosmic law – previously held by Inanna, the Queen of Heaven and Earth. These codes live within my field, unlocking native recall and mastery - weaving directly into the essence of the Dragon and Merkis Codices.

All my teams strengthen our path of soul sovereignty, feminine power, and return of one's original design.

The Crystalline Framework of Dragon Code Activations

Together - the dragons, Inanna, the ME codes, and the sacred geometry of the Vesica Piscis and Merkabas - form the imperishable framework of the Dragon Code Activations.

Return to your origin geometric essence - the sovereign blueprint you incarnated with. A remembrance of multidimensional truth - who you truly are beyond this reality. A path of embodied light and lived mastery – of knowledge & integration of self Dragon Code Activations are global via Zoom ~ approximately one hour. The intelligence transcends all human matrix barriers; I have initiated these transmissions in multiple languages, including Italian, utilising real-time phone translation throughout the process. Nothing stops their return.

Trust what you feel. Trust what you know. The dragons are already with you.
