

Merkis Lemurian Codex: Resurrection of the Feminine Merkaba Restored by Emma Hands

The Feminine Axis – Merkis ∩ Sophia 🌹 Dragons 🐉

Merkis, the Feminine Light Vehicle, is the Merkaba's Source code, beyond its opposite — it is the womb the Merkaba was born from.

→ The Masculine Light Vehicle ascends
→ The Feminine Light Womb Incarnates.
Both are needed. Both are whole. Both are sovereign.

Merkaba goes to reality → Merkis calls reality into agreement. This is why Merkis is the feminine counterpart → the missing half of the navigation system, its enabling principle.

Merkis is where the world meets you - where you unseal, become unpossessable, and live your sovereign freedom with ease. It is the feminine light architecture that allows power to remain embodied.

This transmission comes through me - the living transmitter of this knowledge – a cell of planetary plasma recall, embodiment of Sophia memory, and the womb architect in the reinstatement of our Dragons. I operate as the custodian catalysing remembrance of what you already are: your infinite autonomous self.

The world is a phenomenon inside the womb.

Origin & Lineage

This intelligence was last consciously accessible during Lemuria — Merkis pre-dates both the Merkaba and Metatron's Cube.

In Atlantis, only the masculine Merkaba was held within collective soul awareness. The feminine condition, Merkis, that allows light to remain embodied had already been concealed.

Atlantis fell through disembodied transcendence — spiritual bypassing — which is why Merkis is essential now and this is why she is restoring within collective consciousness.

Merkis was sealed within collective memory.

She restores what was missing: rooted embodiment.

Light does not escape upward - power does not leave the body.

Merkis does not travel through reality - she rearranges reality.

In the wrong hands:

- Lands could be pulled through dimensions
- Beings could be summoned without gateways
- Time could be re-bent around desire, not truth
- Sovereignty could override consent.

The original guardians chose a strategic veiling over total structural collapse, waiting until our bodies were resilient enough to hold Her velocity once more.

In sovereignty,

Emma
