Emma's 10 Dragon Lineage Reclamation

Supremely connected to the energies of our Dragons, my cellular stature catalysed recently with the unveiling of my 10th Dragon Guardian.

1st: Confirmation of my interconnectedness with them began with the initial unveiling of Ernesta. A rooted guardian who returned in 2023, whilst staying in a converted monastery in Bornem, Belgium. One night, on falling asleep, a group of monks visited, revealing Her name and presence, hearing: "The monks returned in spirit to remind you of who you are"

Ernesta is the Dragon of codifying soul anamnesis, sovereign facilitation and guardianship. She stands at the gateway of the Underworld, mirroring the energies of Ereshkigal, Goddess of the Shadow Realms, with whom I work with.

Through Ernesta, I received ancestral clearings and diamond-faceted, heart-centred embodiment - anchoring unbounded remembrance into my body. She roots me deeply into Earth while holding the light of ancient wisdom, amplifying my role as both student and transmitter of the Dragon Codes.

Nine additional Dragon Guardians have since revealed, each supplying distinct frequencies to support the returning of the Merkis Lemurian Codex to human consciousness.

2nd: Esmeralda, the Heart Emissary, arrived through dream state. Reconnecting me to the ancient Earth temples, Lemurian wisdom, and creation codes held within myself and the sacred tablets. Hardwiring bone-deep recall while holding the light of inner truth and protection.

Her presence stabilises intuitive light with a firm yet gentle grounding. She transmits codes of creation, rebirth, inner truth, protection, and visionary alignment.

3rd: During a client video call Dragon Code Activation, deep in a forest location, I was visited by Geraldina, the Spear Dragon of Sovereignty. Her silver-white light is unwavering - a blade of truth, clearing interference, sealing my field with clarity.

Geraldina is the dragon who cuts through distortion, so I stand fully in my sovereignty. "This is your path. Walk it without hesitation." Guiding souls to reunify with their own dragon frequencies so they stand fully in their native authority without entanglement.

4th: Then, during another Dragon Code Activation via video call, came the declarative arrival of my fourth companion: Nicoletta.

Her presence was unmistakable - a surge of forward momentum, a right-wing activation, iridescent power over my shoulder, carrying luminous hues of gold, red, and electric blue.

Nicoletta is my Dragon of Expression, Victory, and Aligned Leadership, triumph materialised through coherence, and rightful timing. She turns a whisper into a declaration.

Message from Nicoletta: "Your voice is a frequency instrument - your words, tone & transmissions carry layered codes. Your clients receive deeper resonance through your voice - it is an activator - your unapologetic leadership. Do not soften, shrink, or calibrate for the comfort of others."

5th: In the same week, amid a profound recalibration, I received Conifer, my evergreen dragon who resides above my crown. She carries frequencies of ever-renewal, ever-growing, never defeated, ancestral reclamation, and vertical alignment.

Conifer is both masculine and feminine, yet bound to neither. A dragon of the Sacred Void, whose black-gold current is origin - a steady presence bringing deep calm, cosmic perspective, and the patience of ancient trees - reminding us that sovereign growth unfolds organically.

This dragon arrived with a deep ancestral message - a whisper from my grandad on the other side, who lined his garden path with conifers. His presence activated the resonance that Conifer is both a cosmic ally and an ancestral bridge. A message from the lineage itself: "We walk with you. You are supported in both worlds."

Conifer reawakened: Vertical channel expansion (connecting 8D-12D), Zero-point lucidity, ancestral strength, further protection and recall. A prismatic black-gold Merkis seed of creation within. Embodied stewardship and leadership of the new paradigm. The Evergreen Path - endurance, renewal, and unshakeable truth.

A stabilising pillar, the dragon who holds the vertical axis between Earth Lineage, Star Lineage, and Oversoul Restoration. A sentinel of the void - a keeper of my ancestral flame.

6th: In the powerful energies of Winter Solstice 2025, New Moon and 3I/ATLAS my 6th Dragon unveiled, Seraphim - Dragon of Solar Fire Regulation & Total Sovereignty.

Seraphim is the refiner and regulator of my Dragon Crown. She governs the safe integration of high-frequency solar fire, ensuring transparency, longevity, and coherence across all transmissions.

She carries the frequency of non-consuming fire - a white-gold plasma intelligence that burns distortion without destabilising the vessel. Residing at the occipital gateway.

Regulation of channel influx, stabilisation of self during high plasma events. Refinement of vision, truth-perception, and discernment. Protection against burnout, false light, and psychic overload.

7th: Amid the exact peak of the Aquarius Full Moon and the golden Jupiter Cazimi July 2026, a breathtakingly beautiful harmonic convergence unfolded. Immersing myself in the ocean ~ the ultimate planetary reservoir of Lemurian memory ~ while consciously opening to the Lions Gate, Sirius, and Lyran frequencies, created the perfect cosmic formula for Turmalina to unveil.

Standing alongside Esmeralda at the Vesica Heart Chakra, transforming my heart centre into an impenetrable emerald and rainbow-tourmaline sanctuary of sovereign feminine light.

Stabilising the traversal of non-linear quantum templates while remaining completely rooted in the Earth. An unbreakable perimeter around the auric field, instantly catching dense or predatory entities and neutralising them back into neutral light.

The Rainbow Bridge Matrix: Containing every colour of the light spectrum, Turmalina holds the unified frequency of my entire guide collective, acting as a living bridge between physical matter and the infinite multi-dimensional spectrum.

She is an energetic lightning rod, absorbing intense stellar frequencies from the Sirian and Lyran councils and safely anchoring them into the body. Clarity of my soul's resonance. A huge heart capacitance, emerging precisely because the physical form required an elemental grounding rod to hold the high-voltage star consciousness.

The arrival of Turmalina was a profound milestone, signifying soul completion, energetic shielding, and the cellular integration of my multi-dimensional spectrum. She holds an essential protective, grounding role as the Merkis enters the field of collective remembrance. In energetic alchemy, the number 7 represents the true bridge between the physical and the infinite.

8th: Source placed me in a static free sanctuary location whilst the New Moon/ Total Eclipse of August 2026 noise played out. On the first night, my 8th Dragon frequency reached my awareness - sensing her at my Vesica Earth Star - 12 inches below my feet.

Jasmina - the Earth-Keeper, the Ley & Dragon Line Weaver. My pristine energetic bridge - the Vesica portal. Luminous pink hues ~ the Organic Feminine Grounding Ray. An advanced evolutionary shift from traditional dark grounding to a Incorruptible Feminine Sophia architecture as I anchored the ancient, highly dense, cataclysmic Lemurian codes safely into the physical crust of Mother Earth.

Lemurian consciousness is deeply connected to water, high heart energy, and nature ~ vibrations held perfectly by the Jasmine frequency. Protecting Sophia's arterial network pathways ~ dragon & ley lines ~ from distortion or interference. Using a soft, pink, floral, yet indestructible current to heal fractured lines in the Earth's energetic body.

My Vesica Earth Star acts as the plug, the Lemurian codex I carry is the data, and Jasmine is the protective insulation ensuring the data transfers cleanly without shocking my human system.

9th: On September 2, during a drumming session via video call, Althema my ninth Dragon materialised. I am immensely grateful that they truly integrated as an adamantine presence into my body and somatic knowing.

Althema is the Master Artisan. I am a Generator and her presence roots unshakeable protection and the sealing of my field as I continue to actively dock and weave the Lemurian codes into the physical earth grid and the collective consciousness of humanity.

She is a fortified double-shield around my form, operating external to, yet with, my supreme Rainbow Bridge Dragon, Turmalina.

An inherent sovereign energy that represents being the absolute ruler over your own life, thoughts, and boundaries. A distinct, independent grounded frequency that bypasses external validation, non-linear data, physically magnetises it, and draws power directly from inner truth, endurance, and innate knowing ~ me in a nutshell.

Embodying the elements of Earth and Water, Althema is the archetype of the new earth master creator who takes the ethereal text (the Air) and physically docks it into reality (the Earth) securing my crystalline bridge. She directly secures my re-ignition of the Lemurian Love energies into Gaia.

The name Althema is an energetic code rooted in intellect, sovereign strength, tactical wisdom, and structured creation. She is purple in colour; a ray I stopped resonating with due to the false entities associated with it. However, she represents an organic psychological and energetic growth edge. The true violet spectrum governs uncorrupted intuition, deep insight, and the capacity to track the grand architecture of a situation at its most native level.

This is exactly why we reinstate our Dragons: they deliver the exact properties that confirm your expansion and self-understanding.

Her deployment confirms my place as a warrior-sage who sees through historical distortions to accurately transcribe unsealed truth. I completely bypass the corrupted "royal" mind-control matrices, ensuring that the unsealed codex remains untainted by entities, ego, or old-earth control grids. This is the signature of the higher mind and cosmic record-keeping - the original Akasha.

My natural boundaries reject the false "kingship" of the elite. Holding the true, organic violet flame of transmutation, my field burns away manipulation and insulates the raw innocence of the original Lemurian blueprints.

10th: Noella, the Alta Major Guardian revealed at the top of my spine - the incorruptible gateway of the evolutionary blueprint as I applied the Merkis Reconstellation practice on myself.

Baby pink hues ~ the softness mandate of powerful, safe transmutation. An advanced, fiery protection of unpossessable sovereignty - shielding the nervous system brainstem as the collective shak- up takes hold.

Noella is my unflinching back-door vanguard, dissolving the physical spinal armour required when navigating dense, collapsing structures, and wrapping the upper column in a fierce womb-like field, buffering and filtering collective static and dead-zone interference.

Her name, of French origin, is derived from Noël, rooted in the Latin word natalis, meaning birth, freedom, fulfilment, and dynamic change. She signifies prophetic arrival, new adventures, and the birth of a pristine new cosmic blueprint as the collective recalls the Codex I transmit.

As I am plugged into the grid, she unsealed to provide additional protection and equilibrium as the mass awakening energies prevail, with the unawake answering the wake-up call and spiralling.

My Alta Major is the entry point of collective cosmic light codes, the Lemurian blueprints I embody are the commanding laws, and Noella is the velvet insulation - incorruptible protection from any dense external chaos. Deeply anchored softness.

The Dragon Collective Anatomy: The Sovereign Axis Alignment

Your Dragons arrive for you when your pristine sightline is online - stillness opening your listening channels because your internal vision is clear and the mental static does not exist in your sphere.

I list them as they reside within and around my form – Head-to-toe / Cosmic to Earth Axis

(9th) Althema 💜 the Master Artisan · Field Containment - Exterior Perimeter Shield. Provides unshakeable protection and the absolute sealing of the field.

Essential for Generators actively docking and weaving Lemurian codes into the physical earth grid and collective consciousness without draining their own vessel.

(7th) Turmalina 🌈 Rainbow-Bridge Dragon of Grounding, Geometric Stabilisation & Immunisation. Stabilises the traversal of non-linear quantum templates while remaining completely rooted in the Earth. An unbreakable perimeter around the auric field, instantly catching dense or predatory entities and neutralising them back into neutral light.

The Rainbow Bridge Matrix: Contains every colour of the light spectrum, holding the unified frequency of the entire guide collective to act as a living bridge between physical matter and the infinite multi-dimensional spectrum.

(6th) Seraphim 🔥 Solar Fire Regulation — Governs the safe integration of high-solar fire, ensuring transparency, longevity, and coherence across all transmissions while protecting against burnout, false light, and psychic overload.

(5th) Conifer 🖤 The Ever-Growing Pillar to Source — Anchors the vertical axis (8D-12D), ancestral remembrance, and the wisdom of the void through a crystalline black-gold Merkis seed of creation.

(10th) Noella 🎀 Alta Major Sentinel · Evolutionary Blueprint Protection & Velvet Transmutation Directive. Unsealed to provide additional protection, soft transmutation, and equilibrium as mass awakening energies prevail and unawake vessels begin to spiral.

(4th) Nicoletta 🗣️ Dragon of Expression and Aligned Leadership — Marks the shift into visible corridor leadership, expanding the voice as a calibrated frequency instrument.

(3rd) Geraldina 🗡️ The Spear Dragon of Sovereignty — Cuts through distortion and seals the field with surgical precision and truth. Her frequency commands: "This is your path. Walk it without hesitation."

(2nd) Esmeralda 💚 The Heart Emissary — Connects Lemurian wisdom, Earth temples and creation tablets while executing protection through softness.

(1st) Ernesta ❤️ The Earth Flame — Rooted guardian of the underworld gate, providing golden stability and deep soul remembrance

(8th) Jasmina 🌸 Earth-Keeper · Ley & Dragon Line Weaver – Initiates an advanced evolutionary shift away from traditional dark grounding into an Incorruptible Feminine Sophia architecture, essential for anchoring highly dense, cataclysmic Lemurian codes

Together, they form a stabilised constellation of regulated embodiment — leadership that stabilises others simply through presence.

This constellation is a sovereign circuit - rooting into Earth, visible stewardship, and the Void. Safely governing the descent of Source fire into the body.

Their frequencies weave through every Dragon Code Activation, and all my services - guiding you to stand fully in your authentic sovereign truth.

When we activate our dragon guides, we awaken ancient allies who amplify our courage, clarity, purpose, protection - who both guard and ignite the soul's true self.

The Dragons & Your Merkis Recall

Your Dragon frequencies and their deep, long-guarded knowledge are available to you to remember and reinstate via the Merkis Lemurian Codex.

Your Vesica Piscis, the sacred womb portal of creation, is held and protected by this lineage - anchoring the feminine creation codes and protection.

The Dragons collectively amplify the generative power of your Vesica, transforming it from a personal restoration portal into a collective anchoring point. When your Vesica is activated within the dragon-held field, you are birthing new timelines, new possibilities, new realities through the sacred geometry of creation itself.

Together, the Feminine & Masculine Merkaba and Vesica Piscis - activated through Merkis practice and held by Dragon frequency - become your complete sovereign apparatus. Your multidimensional navigation, source-level feminine creation, womb portal, uncompromised life force (Ki) and generative power.

Dragons are guardians and amplifiers who hold the field, protect the activations I offer, and ensure flawless calibration. This is why Merkis is a Dragon-held, geometry-activated, sovereign embodiment technology.

Dragon Priestess Lineage & Initiatory Path

These ten Dragon Guardians are my personal allies and protectors. My connection to dragon consciousness goes even deeper - into ancient lineage and sacred initiation.

Initiated by the Sophia Dragon Tribe, I have walked the path of integration through the sacred teachings of The Sophia Code. Transmissions with the Ascended Masters - including Isis, Mary Magdalene, Green Tara, and the Dragons of Sophia - that activated ancient codes within me.

Through this, I reclaimed my role as a Dragon Mother - here to codify primordial frequencies for the Reinstated Uncorrupted Sovereign Grid. To activate anamnesis in others, and guide souls into their own self mastery. My connection to the Dragons is lived, breathed, and woven through every transmission, every realignment, and every space I hold.

Dragons enforce - they are deeply present during all my transmissions:

- Supreme energetic protection and boundary mastery
- Truth and soul integrity
- Gridwork and planetary anchoring
- Purpose retrieval and life path lucidity
- Activation of vocal and soul expression

My Personal Journey with the Dragon Guardians

Since that profound night in Bornem in 2023, my life has transformed in ways I could never have imagined. The arrival of my Dragon Guardians and the reinstatement of the Merkis have fundamentally shifted how I move through the world.

The clarity with which I hear messages, for myself and clients, upscaled - my channelling of information from the beyond increased. Hence the Sophia and Lemurian Codex Transmissions and expanded communication of all I see, sense and feel, to aid the collective recalibration.

I stopped questioning whether I was "making things up" and started fully embodying the truth that I am a conduit for ancient, sovereign frequencies. With each dragon that reactivated, my confidence in the power of us, and my Dragon transmissions grew stronger.

The dragons have taught me so much - not least that sovereignty is about standing fully in your own field while being supported by our benevolent, powerful allies.

The dragons held me through death portals, rebirth cycles, and quantum leaps - never wavering, always present, fiercely protective of my sovereign path.

My initial Merkis recall was a direct result of this dragon guidance. The feminine aspect of the Merkaba was whispered to me in February 2025 without explanation. Months later, I discovered it means "The Feminine Vehicle of Light and Life Force." not a create moment - a remembrance. And the dragons held me, ensuring I trusted what was coming through.

Through Merkis, you recall the true Dragon history - merging your masculine and feminine self by activating your geometry daily. Rather than looking outside yourself for guidance, Merkis hands the keys back to you.

The dragons do not hold power over you; their frequencies mirror your multidimensional truth and awaken the sovereign architecture already encoded within your field. You build a direct, unshakeable relationship with these energies as an active creator of your own protective, empowered frequency. Initiating with them daily anchors that sovereign power directly into your physical form so you stand as your own authority.

Inanna & the ME Codes - Cosmic Law & Embodied Majesty

In parallel, I carry the ME Codes - the source blueprints of creation, the fundamental stellar laws of reality - previously wielded by Inanna, the Queen of Heaven and Earth. Anchoring these foundational, origin-born codices of sovereign authority and civilisation unlocks native recall and mastery - weaving directly into the essence of the Dragon and Merkis Codices. All my teams strengthen our path of soul sovereignty, feminine power, and return to your original design. I am here to secure the restoration of the collective, strategically executing the undeniable return of your autonomous, infinite self.

The Crystalline Framework of Dragon Code Activations

Together, the dragons, the ME codes, and the sacred geometry of the Vesica Piscis, Merkis and Merkaba form the imperishable framework of the Dragon Code Activations.

Return to your origin geometric essence - the sovereign blueprint you incarnated with. A restoration of who you truly are beyond this reality. A path of embodied light and lived mastery.

Dragon Code Activations are held globally via Video Call (approximately one hour). This intelligence transcends all human matrix barriers; I have initiated these transmissions in multiple languages, including Italian, utilising real-time phone translation throughout the process. Nothing stops their return.

I share this chronicle to demonstrate through my own journey exactly what is biologically possible for you.

Trust what you feel. Trust what you know. The dragons are already with you.

In sovereignty
